OverviewTags.Tuesday, March 18, 2010 I LOVE LOVE LOVE this idea! I had a hot day today and wanted something hot and sweet. My 11 year old and 1 year old decided to help me with the recipe. They used to make these for their early grade school friends for holiday parties. These will make you feel like the holidays are coming to a close and usher you into a new season. This recipe is very versatile. First, just cook up a batch of hot dogs, slightly warm some sugar (I used brown sugar but white will work just fine) and top them on a cookie sheet. Add a little salt and pepper and cook them for around 10 minutes. Now that they are done you can add the topping. We used chocolate chips but a delicious combination of Chocolate Hershey Kisses and white chocolate chips would be nice! When the hot dogs are done from your topping, then you can top them with the marshmallows, however, if you just want to put them on top then just use the topping. These are really easy to make and look very festive for a holiday party. About Me I became a pastry chef because I love cooking and baking. There is nothing more exciting than planning a new recipe or looking at a new menu and trying to come up with a new way to turn the same recipes into something new.
